ABOUT ME - SUMMARY

Hello! My name is Danish Israr and I have a passion for Design. Since from early age, I have been curious and creative, giving me a great base for what would be my passion, but more than anything else, what gives me great satisfaction in Design is the search for the "perfect" solution, not being stuck in a problem but working around it and solving it, it has helped me a lot in navigating through life. The combination of rationality and creativity in Design was really the only place I felt I could put all my talents to work together, and it made work feel like a hobby.
