PROFESSIONAL SKILLS

Administer regional and general anesthesia, local anesthesia, and nerve blocks for a diverse range of surgeries, including general, orthopedic, central and peripheral IV, obstetric, gynecologic, neurologic, pediatric, and ENT procedures at Adama Hospital Medical College.

INTEREST & HOBBIES

Regional, general, and local anesthesia, including central and peripheral IV cannulation, adhering to aseptic techniques, to ensure safe and accurate delivery of anesthesia. Manage fluid and electrolyte levels during anesthesia administration, adapting protocols to all surgical specialties such as maxillofacial, plastic and reconstructive, thoracic, hepatobiliary, and ophthalmic surgeries. Preoperative evaluation and documentation procedures and dosage guidelines tailored to the requirements of various surgical disciplines. Endotracheal intubation in critical cases during surgeries, demonstrating quick decision-making skills and maintaining composure in emergency situations across different specialties. Prepare and load anesthesia drugs, utilizing advanced monitoring equipment to closely observe patients in emergency, ICU, and operation rooms during surgeries, adapting to the specific demands of each specialty. Perioperative patient monitoring and emergency preparation collaborate seamlessly with surgical teams to provide specialized anesthesia support for complex procedures in various specialties, including bariatric surgeries. Maintain accurate and up-to-date patient records, documenting anesthesia details, drug administration, and vital signs specific to the nuances of each surgical specialty. Participate in continuous education and training programs to stay current with advancements in anesthesia techniques and technologies relevant to diverse surgical disciplines. Uphold strict adherence to safety protocols, infection control measures, and ethical standards while delivering anesthesia services tailored to the intricacies of Adama Hospital Medical College's surgical specialties.
